Royal Gossip

From Naples comes the story of a singular difference between the Prince Adolph, of Schaumburg-Lippe, and his bride, the Princess Victoria, during their stay in that city, previous to starting for Malta and Egypt. It is merely hotel gossip and is given for what it is worth. The Prince is said to have found in the papers of the Princess a picture of the gentleman known as Count Hartmann, the commander of a regiment of Austrian infantry. This would be all right but for the fact that Count Hartmann is identical with Prince Alexander of Battenberg, with whom the Princess Victoria is said to have been at one time very much in love, the engagement of attachment having been broken off by the iron maiden of Bismarck. Prince Adolph himself is very like Alexander in feature, and this fact is said to have led to the Princess liking him, that is, Adolph. Whatever may have followed the discovery of the picture, the Prince at any rate was ordering his personal luggage booked for Battenberg when a recollection was somehow effected. Prince Alexander's portrait was left behind, and that fact and the luggage order probably gave rise to the story. Adolph is a proud-spirited young man, and not likely to brook any diversity of affection on the part of his spouse, even if she is sister to the Kaiser.

Cured Herself and Her Child. S. S. S. has relieved me of a terrible scrofula from which I had suffered for years. It affected my nose first as catarrh, then caries of the bone, and continued to eat until it destroyed the soft bone in the right side of the nose, then went to my throat and later on to my lungs, and it looked as if I was doomed. S. S. S. has cured me, and has also cured my little daughter of the same disease. MRS. N. RITCHIE, Mackey, Ind. Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.
